

GLOSSARY of NAMES

| Name | Pronunciation | Description |
|------------|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Ailell | Ah-lel | King of ancient Connaught, husband of Queen Maeve |
| Aine | Ah-in | Queen of the Sidhe |
| Armagh | Arm-ach | Site of nemeton (Also a present day town in Ireland) |
| Abaddon | | King of Demons |
| Balor | | Giant warrior with one evil eye, grandfather of Lugh |
| Beagh | Bah-ch | Hilly area in Northern Ireland (1,200 ft above sea level) |
| Cathbad | Kath-vath | A Druid – priest in ancient Ireland with magical powers |
| Cuailgne | Koo-ley | Owner of the Great Brown Bull |
| Cuchulain | Koo-hoo-lin | Most famous warrior in ancient Ireland from Ulster |
| Culain | Koo-lin | Owner of dog that Cuchulain killed in self defense |
| Dagda | Day-ah | Supreme Irish “good god”, father figure to all ancient gods. |
| Danu | Dan-oo | Daughter of Dagda and mother of Tuatha Dé Danann |
| Dundealgan | Dundalk | Site of nemeton (A bay on the east coast of Ireland, north of Dublin) |
| Eblana | | Ancient village possibly near present day Dublin, Ireland |
| Fomorians | F’ MoR e ans | Ancient race forced into the sea by Danu’s clan |
| Laeg | Lay (or Layg) | Cuchulain’s driver, son of Rianganabra |
| Longford | | Site of nemeton (Also a present day town in Ireland) |
| Lough | Lo-ch | Irish word for lake |
| Lugaid | | Ancient Irish warrior, son of Curoi, enemy of Cuchulain |
| Lugh | Loo | Sun god; grandson of Balor: spear & sling his weapons. |
| Macha | | A part of Morrigan, she feeds on the eyes of slain enemies |
| Maeve | Mave | Queen of ancient Connaught, wife of King Ailell |
| Monaghan | | Site of nemeton (Also a present day town in Ireland) |
| Morrigan | | Tripartite battle goddess of the ancient Irish (Celts) |

| | | |
|------------------|---------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
| Neman | | A part of Morrigan; she causes confusion |
| Ogham | O ham | Celtic Tree Language; Symbols for ancient Irish language |
| Otherworld | | Home of the Sidhe and the spirits of the Irish dead |
| Salflog | | Demon lieutenant; slimy body of lizard with frog head |
| Setanta | | Cuchulain's birth name as the son of Sualtim |
| Sidhe | Sh-ee | Ancient Irish race, ancestors of present day fairies |
| Slieve | | Irish word for mountain |
| Temair | T'yower | Site of Ireland's king of kings castle, today called Tara |
| Tuatha Dé Danann | | The Clan of Danu; children of ancient Irish gods |
| Wulgoar | | Vicious demon beast; body of boar with wolf head |
| Zagan | | Demon of deceit, 2 nd in command under Abaddon |